

The warehouses are bulging, we've loaded our shelves
This year has been busy for HORIZON elves
As we move in on the close of twenty-thirteen
It's time to look back on the months in between

The economy's grip has loosened its hold
Horizon's taking firm steps, optimistic and bold
All in all we are happy the year treated us well
We've invested in wood to save, treasure, and sell
Our production is up along with our sales
Things are forging ahead. We're not chasing our tails
Some new kilns and machines and more faces around
New markets emerging to explore and astound

The truth be it said, it's been years since our start
Along the road there've been times wood was not worth a fart
But we do what we do because we like what gets done
This career that we chose we are privileged is fun.
There are so many things that can give you great pride
When your quality shines and you've nothing to hide
But we say year after year and our thought is not trite
There's one additional ingredient that makes us feel right

It's you folks whom we deal with and gotten to know.
When surrounded by good people, who couldn't but grow?
You are why we stick with it doing our best everyday
So again, with thanks, it a pleasure to say:

We wish you all a wonderful holiday season!
