

It's our hope this year end message finds you and yours happy, safe and sound.
It's a time we all button up loose ends as another year comes round.
Horizon's 50th milestone went by in a blur and blink
Looking back at half a century was cause to remember, reflect and think.
All in all it's been good fortune successfully making labor and leisure combine.
Now, I just need some luck to make my writing interesting and rhyme.

The year worldwide was weirdness, Santa's probably scratching his head.
Figuring out who's good or bad, and why some things were done and said.
In '25 we had a productive year but it's not a time to count or boast.
There's enough of that going on by folks, who want to win and show they have the most.
A lot of confusing conflicts going on everywhere this year.
To us, valued, long relationships always make our mission clear.

We believe stubbornness, attention to detail, and hard work is what it takes.
These are often attributes confused with plain luck or lucky breaks.
One way we measure our merit is how we make you feel.
Trust me when I say it's not Horizon's way, to come out ahead in every deal.
Over anyone's honest successes there's always stumbles and inopportune burps.
THANK YOU, our cohorts, contractors and customers who trust our strategies to work.
To sum up our company's history, I can personally say, "no regerts".

So, to make a subjective but sincere point in closing:
Since a rightful King, Elvis, left this mortal world, no longer to astound
A comment for the future was said by a man who justifiably deserves a crown.
His words say it all, inspire, and are a good way to live and end this letter.
Warren Buffett, not to be confused with Jimmy, says:
"We will never be perfect, but we can always be better"

We at Horizon wish you the most perfect of holidays and all the good, better, best in the New Year 2026.

*other past year -end messages of commentary, complements, opinion and Christmas Cheer can be found on our website at::

www.horizonwood.com/news
Scroll to "Through the Holidays"

HORIZON
WOOD PRODUCTS, INC. 